Westerly City Missionary Resigns

To Become Colporter for State Baptist Association—
Horse Walked Off Highway and is Drowned—
Westerly Must Step Lively to Win Saturday's Game—
New York Coaching Club Coming to town.

Alexander Smith, who has been city missionary for Westerly and Pawcatuck for the past three years, is soon to leave the work he has so well done to engage in Christian work in a broader field on different lines. At a meeting of the executive committee of the Rhode Island Baptist association Mr. Smith was selected as colporter for the state, and he will be presented at the state convention to be held in Providence next Tuesday. He is well adapted for the work, as he has had considerable experience among those outside of church membership, and during the summer has conducted successful gospel tent meetings in Pawcatuck and Westerly in addition to his other duties as missionary.

Mr. Smith succeeds J. H. Tremberth as state colporter and leaves his work here with regret, but is forced to make the change in the interests of himself and family, as the position here is not sufficient for the family maintenance. He is much concerned over the work of the mission here, as no one has yet been selected to carry on the charitable work during the winter months, which has been left undone, as the missionary is crippled financially.

Mr. Smith's work as missionary for the past month is as follows: He has thirty-two evangelistic meetings, made 126 calls upon the dying, sick and needy, which included night calls, officiated at two funerals, received calls between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning, when he was at the mission for that purpose, found employment for men and women, gave out 300 garments, 10 pairs of shoes, etc., gave out groceries to the amount of $4.50, received for poor during the month $5, received for support of self and family $19.

There was rumor current in Westerly Thursday to the effect that there was something doing in the political line that would probably be made public before the republican caucus is held next week. According to the rumor the republican town committee is planning to defeat the renomination of Senator Louis W. Arnold again, and that the committee, or a majority thereof, will recommend the advancement of Representative Albert H. Langworthy and the retirement of Senator Arnold. This same plan was tried a year ago, when the committee recommended the nomination of Dr. John Champlin as Senator Arnold's successor. At the nominating caucus the polls were kept open for six hours, giving all who desired opportunity to vote. In the face of determined opposition, when the vote was counted Senator Arnold was renominated by a large majority.

Attorney Samuel H. Davis of Westerly, formerly pastor of the Seventh-day Baptist church, was one of the speakers at the closing exercises of the Rhode Island Baptist Sunday school convention in Providence. His subject was The Sunday School and Civic Righteousness. He spoke mainly of the work of interesting the boys in self-improvement.

Rev. Edward S. Nide of Providence succeeded ex-Gov. George H. Utter of Westerly as president of the association and Miss M. Clarke of Westerly was elected a member of the executive committee. Governor Utter was toastmaster at the annual banquet. Before the convention adjourned a vote of thanks was tendered to George L. Stillman of Westerly for the large quantity and rare quality of dahlias he furnished for decorative purposes.

During the Seventh-day Baptist conference at Milton, Wis., there was an impromptu session of the Grand Army men present at the conference, of which there were forty-one. This session was represented by George R. Carpenter of Ashaway, Company D, Fourth Rhode Island Infantry, and Horace Stillman, also of Ashaway, Company I, same regiment. The veterans were from twelve states, had served in organizations from seven states and in twenty-nine different regiments.

At the fortieth annual convocation of Narragansett commandery, No. 27, Knights Templar, the following officers were elected: Robert E. Cole, eminent commander; George E. Broughton, generalissimo; D. Everett Hoxie, captain general; Alexander R. Patterson, senior warden; Albert H. Spicer, Jr., junior warden; Thomas McKenzie, prelate; Russell B. Smith, treasurer; Archibald C. Thompson, recorder; William D. Cameron, standard bearer; Samuel Girven, sword bearer; Thomas I. Chapman, vander; Arthur N. Nash, third guard; Lewis Stanton, second guard; Henry L. Bolles, first guard; William H. Gledhill, organist; Frank Baldi, sentinel.

The officers were installed by Past Eminent Commander Albert H. Spicer, with Fremont Spicer, the retiring eminent commander, as master of ceremonies. After the installation an oyster supper was served by the members of Deborah lodge, Eastern Star.

A horse belonging to E. Kaplan, a junk dealer, was drowned in the Pawcatuck river near Boom bridge late Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Kaplan was driving leisurely along the road with a wagon load of junk when the horse walked off the bank into the river, driver, wagon and all. Every effort was made to rescue the horse but without result. The contents of the wagon were lost also. Mr. Kaplan estimates his loss at $175. The mishap occurred on the Connecticut side of the river, where there is no protecting railing along the bank.

To win Saturday's baseball game from Wakefield in Westerly the home team, although the pennant winners of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league, will have to do some hustling. Wakefield is out to win second place in the league and with only two games more to play it is a case of win all or lose. For this occasion Wakefield will be represented by the Monitor winners in the Rhode Island Inter-city league, the same in which Pitchers Glennon and Ayers, who starred with Westerly, took prominent part. The home team will play to win with Glennon in the box and are not in the least feazed by the coming of the Monitor.

STERLING CHURCH

To Be Dedicated on Sunday Next by Rt. Rev. John Synnott—Third Catholic Church Built by Rev. J. H. Broderick, Formerly of Norwich.

Thursday's Catholic Transcript had a cut and the following sketch of the new church at Sterling. Rev. J. H. Broderick was a former curate at St. Patrick's church, Norwich.

The Right Rev. John Synnott, administrator of the diocese of Hartford, will next Sunday, October 10, dedicate St. Joseph's new church in Sterling. The ceremony will take place at 10:30.

There will be three sermons, one in English by the Rev. John Neale, LL.D., Terryville; in French by the Rev. J. C. Mathieu, Mowatt; and one in Polish by the Rev. S. Musiel, Middletown.

The cornerstone of the new church was laid June 5 of this year by the Right Rev. John Synnott. This is the third church in eastern Connecticut built by the Rev. John H. Broderick.

St. Joseph's church is a frame building in Gothic style. It has a frontage of 46 feet which includes the tower and is 54 feet in depth. It will have a seating capacity of 200 persons. The cellar walls are of stone with brick underpinning. The main floor has an auditorium 32 feet wide and 66 feet in depth to the sanctuary. On either side of the sanctuary are sacristies for the pastor and the altar boys. A choir gallery extends across the front over the front vestibule. The exterior is to be cladboarded, and the gables finished with shingles cut to a pattern. The roofs are of shingles. The tower finishes with an open bell deck with space for bell. The ceilings are of wood divided by panels; the side walls have wood wainscot and plaster finish. The confessionals are of plaster finish. The confessionals are placed at the front and space is provided for two side altars in the sanctuary. The building will be heated by warm air furnaces.

This is the third church built within the limits of All Hallows parish in ten years; the others being those of the new All Hallows church at Mowatt in June, 1901, and of the mission church at Linfield in August, 1907. These handsome structures now owe their existence to the careful and energetic oversight of Rev. J. H. Broderick, the pastor of All Hallows, who has the love and esteem of all within the parish, and is beloved by the people, regardless of church affiliations.

BABY'S WATERY ECZEMA
Itched and Scratched Until Blood Ran
—$50 Spent on Useless Treatments—Disease Seemed Incurable
CURED BY CUTICURA FOR $1.50

"My baby boy broke out on both cheeks with eczema. It was the itchy, watery kind and unless we kept his little hands wrapped up all the time, he would claw his face and the blood streamed down. The physician gave an ointment which was so severe that my babe would scream when it was put on. We changed doctors and medicines until we had spent fifty dollars or more and baby was getting worse. I was so worn out watching and caring for him night and day that I almost felt sure the disease was incurable. I bought only a dollar and a half's worth of the Cuticura Remedies and they entirely cured him. Mrs. M. C. Comer, Burnt Cabins, Pa., Sept. 15, 1908."

Cure for Liquor Habit
Give Orin and Destroy All Desire
Sold Under Guarantee

Orin is the most successful cure for the liquor habit that the world has ever known. It is a home treatment, given without publicity, detention from business or loss of time, and is absolutely guaranteed if the simple directions on each box are carefully followed. So remarkable have been the changes wrought for suffering drinkers by Orin that leading ministers, charity workers, philanthropists and druggists everywhere recommend the treatment. Thousands of endorsements have been given for the remedy.

Read this one from the Quaker Drug Co., Seattle, Wash.:
"During the past five years we have sold thousands of packages of ORIN, and have never heard it spoken of except in highest terms of praise. We have dozens of people come to us and state that ORIN has cured them or their husbands or dear ones from the curse of drunkenness. ORIN is one of the few articles on the market that we can conscientiously recommend to our customers, and we do so daily, feeling that we have done what to us seems a duty as well as a service."

Orin is prepared in two forms. No. 1, a powder, dissolves in water and is odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orin No. 2, in pill form, is for those who wish to cure themselves. Orin costs only $1 a box. In every box is a guarantee which entitles you to a refund of your money if Orin fails to effect a cure. Write for Free Orin Booklet ( mailed in plain sealed envelope ) to Orin Co., 247 Orange Building, Washington, D. C. Orin is for sale in this city by N. D. Sevin & Son.

They know Orin is a reliable and efficacious remedy for drunkenness and they will not offer you a substitute.
